FAMILY NEWS

It's hard to believe we have a little over two months left of 2015. This year will be over before we know it. Don't miss out on the great fellowship opportunities coming up this weekend. The Michener's have invited us over to their home for chili and singing on Friday, the 30th. We will also have our annual Fall Festival with food, fellowship and fun on Sunday, November 1st after evening services. We will have our potluck, play games downstairs and trick or treat upstairs. It's going to be a great time of family fun. Good news. We have a new sister in Christ, Shirley Jones was immersed into Christ this past Sunday. Make sure to welcome her into the body of Christ. Also we still have many in our church family struggling with physical illness as well as spiritual struggles. Let's all continually pray to God on behalf of our church family and those in need.

Are You Holy?

Our prayer theme for this Saturday is Holy Living. We see the word "holy" ascribed to followers of Christ throughout the New Testament. But what does it mean to live a life of holiness? What does it mean when we read;

"But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."

1 Peter 1:15-16 NIV

Sometimes we struggle with what it means to be holy. If I'm holy does that mean I'm better than other people? Do I have to disassociate myself from "the lost" or give up my non-Christian friends?

Let's get together this Sunday and consider what scripture has to say about being holy as God is holy. See you soon.

Your brother
Jimmy Hyde

PRAYER CONCERNS

No one that we know of at this time from our Central family is in the hospital. Please remember those that are shut-in either at home or in a care facility in your prayers. A card, call or visit would be very much appreciated.

SYMPATHY

1933 Mary Jo Fleming 2015

We extend our loving sympathy to the family of Mary Jo Fleming. Mary Jo departed this life unexpectedly on October 7. Funeral services were conducted by Dwyane Dennis in our building on October 10. She was a vital link in a family of three generations of Truesdells at Central, the daughter of Chuck and Odean Truesdell and the mother of Debbie Taffe. She was the widow of the late Bill Fleming and the sister and sister-in-law of Buddy and Melita Truesdell and later the sister-in-law of Fay Truesdell. Mary Jo came from a family that contributed to the erection of our building at Tenth and Bell in the 1930's and 40's, and it's fitting that her funeral was conducted there. Baptized into Christ early in life, Mary Jo was God's faithful child. She always stood ready to encourage other Christians in any good and to kindly point out any error that she saw. Because of illness, we have not been able to be with Mary Jo very much for quite a while. It won't be long until we find joy in that privilege once more.

YOUTH NEWS

By NATHAN KELLY

The youth group has been asked to help out with the Fall Festival on Sunday evening. We will be decorating doors on the second floor and handing out candy. If you have any Halloween decorations you're not going to use, bring them Sunday. I think we will probably meet at the building early, before evening service, to decorate. You're more than welcome to wear a costume.

On Sunday during worship, I'll admit my mind wandered off a little bit. I was thinking about kids and how they can give just about as much support as they seem to need. I thought of the movie, Prince of Egypt. There are two scenes with a little Israelite girl and an old Israelite woman. The first time we see these two, the Israelites are fleeing Egypt. The old woman is starting to slow down and get tired, when this little girl grabs her hand, smiles up at her and helps her on. The old woman then is able to repay the favor when they cross the Red sea. The little girl gets scared and the old woman is there to comfort her and helps her feel protected. You never know who you can be a comfort to and you never know what small things will bring you comfort. These are two things to look out for.

We express our loving sympathy to Jim Lynn and all of the family and friends of Jane Lynn. Jane passed away Thursday, October 22 and her service was conducted Saturday, October 24.

THANK YOU NOTE

We want to thank you for all of the freezer meals, gifts and most importantly prayers that you have given us over the last couple of weeks! Your thoughtfulness means so much to our family in this special time we're going through. It has been incredibly helpful, and we are incredibly blessed to have your support. The love that you have showed and continue to show is amazing. We are very grateful and love you all very much! We are happy to report that Peyton will be coming home with us today. Thanks again for your prayers! We're looking forward to introducing you to Peyton in the future.

— Matt, Megan and Peyton Jane Stephens
