FAMILY NEWS

God is the “Great I Am”. Wow, there is a lot of sickness still going around. Please continue to pray for those recovering from surgery and sickness, especially the young and old with the flu. This can be a very serious illness and has already taken the lives of 45 Oklahomans. Here’s some great news; we have a new sister in Christ. India Gilbert was baptized this past Thursday the 18th. She is the granddaughter of Norma Cowden and lives in Midwest City. Pray that God will bless her as she begins her walk with Him. Keep on living for Him brothers and sisters. Our work’s not done until He comes.

What is God’s Name? YHWH

Don’t you hate it when people forget your name? I usually give people a lot of slack if they forget my name because I have trouble remembering names sometimes. If you asked God; “What’s your name?” I wonder what He would say? Moses essentially did this in Exodus 3:13-14. “Moses said to God, “Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ Then what shall I tell them?” God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM”. This is what you are to say to the Israelites: ‘I AM has sent me to you.‘” Exodus 3:13-14

Names are important. They distinguish us and many times define us; especially in Biblical history. The neat thing about the old Testament is that it’s filled with sixteen different names for God. All of them with different meaning. In this series we’re going explore a few of the names of God found in the Old Testament and get to know God better.

Let’s unite together this Sunday to learn more about God and who He is.

See you this Sunday.
Your brother

Jimmy Hyde

A Powerful Passage

“I am the Lord; that is my name! I will not give my glory to another or my praise to idols.” Isaiah 42:8 NIV

YOUTH NEWS

By NATHAN KELLY

For those who read this online, I wanted to remind you about the cleaning day for the youth house on Saturday, the 27, at 4pm. We have an AWTG next month on February 11 in Seminole. Also, I’m currently making a list for the dinner and devos. We, well I, obviously missed January, but our first one will be February 18.

As I was sitting in worship this past Sunday, something Jimmy said triggered my brain to go back and think about the lesson I had just taught (Jimmy, I promise I was listening though). We just studied Genesis 22 and it occurred to me that Abraham talks to God and to an angel in this chapter, but never once is he told, “Do not be afraid.” That got me curious and from what I can tell, God only tells Abraham once to not be afraid, and that’s in chapter 15. Is Abraham’s relationship with God so close that Abraham isn’t even afraid when they talk or when he encounters angels? If so, how to we get to where Abraham was? That’s the challenge and the only answer I have, is faith. Not that we don’t have faith, but Abraham’s faith is something out of this world and something we need to strive for.

THANK YOU NOTES

Diane Lawerance wants to thank everyone for their prayers, calls and cards. Also the Wednesday night K—5th grade class. They are awesome! They couldn’t put my port in because my blood pressure was too high.

We love all of you! Please keep me in your prayers. All or love, Billy & Diane and Family.

We want to thank our Christian family for all of the care you have shown throughout Howard’s illness and at this time of loss. We appreciate all of the calls, cards, visits and prayers. In Christ, The Vanlandingham Family.

“We have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.” 2 Corinthians 4:7
