IN LOVING MEMORY OF

1927 Erma Dean Farris 2018

Erma Dean Farris passed from this life on June 27, 2018, at the age of 91. Erma Dean was the only daughter born to Ruff Davis and Ora Mae (Smith) Davis. Her young life was spent on their farm in Clairta. After graduating high school, she attended East Central University where she pursued a degree in secretarial arts. With the shortage of teachers following World War II, she began teaching. While teaching in Bethel, she met and married Eldon Leroy Farris on March 30, 1949. Their 35 years were spent in Shawnee.

Erma Dean worked for years as a county clerk at the Pottawatomie court house. She and her husband owned and operated Farris Radio and TV. She was the den leader for her sons' Cub Scout pack and active member of the Shawnee Band Parents Association and PTA. Erma Dean was a faithful member of Central Church of Christ.

She was an excellent seamstress making her families' suits and clothing. Later in life, she took up quilting and made several graduation quilts for her grandchildren. She loved being around people and regularly visited the shut-ins and elderly. She also enjoyed traveling, singing, playing dominos and cards, and working puzzles.

Erma Dean is preceded in death by her parents, her brother, Leon Davis and Joe Davis, a daughter, Andrea, and her husband, Eldon.

She is survived by three sons: Steve Farris and wife Renee of Sparks; Roger Farris and wife Lori of Shawnee; and Mark Farris and wife Kyla of Catoosa. She is also survived by nine grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, five step grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

Her zest for life touched everyone around her. Erma Dean was an inspiration to many and will be greatly missed.

THANK YOU NOTE

The family of Erma Farris would like to thank our church family for the expressions of love and sympathy we have received over the past few days. We would like to thank the church leadership for the use of the building on late notice. Thank you to all who attended mom's service, to those who fixed lunch and stayed all day, to those who brought bread, cinnamon rolls and cookies to the house, (the kids and Roger are especially thankful for that), and to Dwyane for conducting a wonderful service. The Erma Dean Farris Family

YOUTH NEWS

By NATHAN KELLY

I'm sorry about canceling the trip to Newalla last Monday. This Sunday is our dinner-and-devo out at the Stephens. Janet, sorry Bob, has asked that we bring chips and/or drinks. Monday, the next day, is the AWTG at Choctaw. The van will leave at 5:15 and should be back around 9.

This year at camp my sister had a smart idea to make coffee for the senior cabin. I was discussing this idea with another senior counselor and we talked about how we've always viewed coffee as an adult drink, but thanks to places like Starbucks, all ages drink coffee. I once saw a family order a cup of decaf coffee for a 10 year old. We have to be careful not to do the same as Christians. 1 Timothy 4:12 comes to mind. It should be a reminder to all ages that the young should not be overlooked. They can make just as good as leaders as followers.

"AND WALK IN LOVE, AS CHRIST ALSO HAS LOVED US AND GIVEN HIMSELF FOR US, AN OFFERING AND A SACRIFICE TO GOD FOR A SWEET-SMELLING AROMA."

EPHESIANS 5:2

LADIES TRIP TO IKEA

Ladies of ALL ages, (not just moms), we have a shopping trip scheduled to go to IKEA in Dallas, TX on Saturday, July 28th.

We will meet at the church building at 8:00 AM and should be back by 9:00 PM, at the latest. We will stop at exit #51 on I-35 for a restroom break and fried pies, there is a cafeteria in IKEA for lunch or snacks, and then we will have dinner at one of the nearby restaurants. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer for all those interested in going; if we have more than 7 people sign up we have permission to take the church van. IKEA is quite different than most of our shopping here in Oklahoma, kind of a cross between a furniture showroom and a Sam's or Costco. There will be a lot of walking but there is plenty of places to sit too. You can take a look at what they carry on IKEA.com if you can't decide or see Michelle for more information. It will be a fun day trip with our church family sisters.
