Family News

God is love. We have been richly blessed here at Central. God has been answering our prayers in so many ways. We still need to be in prayer for those on our prayer list. We have several still recovering or dealing with new health problems. I also want to remind you of some upcoming activities. Our end of the month Sunday night singing will be this Sunday night the 30th. We also have a group traveling to Oklahoma Christian University for an area-wide worship in their Hardeman auditorium this coming Sunday night on the 30th from 6 pm to 8 pm. For anyone interested in riding together the church van will leave the church parking lot at 4:45 pm and return at 9 pm. If you have any questions, just ask me. We also will have our second Wednesday night dinner this week on October 3rd. This is an opportunity for us all to get together for a meal and then enjoy some great Bible study. Praise God for the blessing of being together as a church family.

Who is the Holy Spirit?

The Bible clearly teaches us that there is a Holy Spirit. But who is the Holy Spirit? What's the purpose of the Holy Spirit in my life today? There are several scriptures that tell us what the Holy Spirit does. Now there are some things that the Holy Spirit did that were limited to the time of the Apostles, but there are teachings about what the Holy Spirit does even today. Paul wrote to the Jewish and Gentile Christians in Rome.

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." Romans 15:13 NIV

Here Paul ascribes the overflowing of hope to the power of the Holy Spirit. Why should we trust in God who fills us with all joy and peace? So we can overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Let's get together this Sunday and consider what scripture tells us concerning the purpose of the Spirit of God in our lives today.

See you this Sunday.

Your brother

Jimmy Hyde

PRAYER CONCERNS

Don Mack needed to go to the emergency room at St. Anthony, Shawnee last week with an elevated heart rate. While there, it was found that he had heart blockage and a blood clot in his lungs. The doctors put in two heart stints and will put in two more in a couple of weeks. He hopes to be released Tuesday or Wednesday. Please keep Don in your prayers.

Tom Chesnut had 99% heart blockage and had a stint placed. After a couple of days in the hospital he was able to return home. Continue to pray for Tom.

Denise Beard's mother, Roberta Bonds, was taken by ambulance Thursday morning to the Elk City emergency room and was admitted to ICU with an irregular heartbeat and pulse rate of 199. They were able to convert her back to a regular heartbeat. She spent the night for observation with no further complications and was released on Friday. She is home and doing well. Keep the Bonds and the Beard families in your prayers.

YOUTH NEWS

By NATHAN KELLY

A big thank you to Joe and Amber for hosting our dinner and devo last Sunday. The weather was perfect, and so was the food and fellowship. Don't forget about the Move conference. I'll be sending out the schedule and when the van will leave each day this week. Also, don't forget about the Camp Reunion at Choctaw on October 20-21. A lot of things to look forward to in October.

As Joe began his devotional thought at the dinner and devo last Sunday, everyone who was following along in the Bible pulled out a phone, all except one. I got a little distracted at this point. There is nothing wrong with following along with a Bible app but I was thinking that the Pharisees would have been really jealous of this convenience. As Deuteronomy 11:18 says, we are told to keep God's word on our hearts and soul and to bind it on our heads. The Pharisees took this literally, and I'm sure they would have welcomed a phone instead of a book, but one thing we might struggle with is obeying this command. Because God's word is so easily accessible, we don't keep them on our hearts as much as in our pockets. So let's not go to the extremes like the Pharisees but let's work on keeping God's work closer to our hearts.

LAST SUNDAY SINGING DEVOTIONAL

Our last Sunday Singing Devotional is this Sunday, September 30th at 5:00 PM. Please come join us as we sing praises to God. Please let Dale Beard know by Sunday morning if you have a song that you would like to have led.
