FAMILY NEWS

Our God is a generous God. We all have varying amounts of struggle and loss in our lives. In spite of that we all still can count our blessings and find the good that God has given us. Let's all continue to pray for those on our prayer list struggling with health problems. We also need to pray for those struggling spiritually. We have a men's breakfast coming up this Saturday, the 17th. I want to encourage all of my brothers in Christ to come and join us here at the church building at 8 am for breakfast. We also want to keep in mind Thanksgiving this coming Thursday, the 22nd. May God bless us as we give our gratitude to Him and enjoy all His rich blessings. We also need to keep in mind all those who may be alone during the Holiday's. Let's not only pray for those struggling during Thanksgiving, but let's look for opportunities to show the love of Christ to those in need. May God bless us as we live for Him.

Faith and Thankfulness

This coming Thursday the 22nd we will all join together with family and friends for the purpose of being thankful. Thankful to God, thankful to our family, thankful to our friends. If we take the time to count our blessings we have much to be thankful for. Of course we don't always give thanks like we should. Jesus healed ten lepers in Luke 17 and only one came back to praise God and thank Jesus.

"One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him — and he was a Samaritan."

Luke 17:15-16 NIV

Let's come together this Sunday to consider the idea of giving praise and showing thankfulness. What reasons do we have to be thankful? And how can I grow in my gratitude toward God? Let's study together.

See you soon.

Your brother

Jimmy Hyde

A Powerful Passage

"For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love." Gal 5:6 NIV

YOUTH NEWS

By NATHAN KELLY

Welcome to the Holiday season. A huge thank you to Austin for teaching the teens for me and Craig for driving the teens last Sunday. Because of Thanksgiving, we don't have anything until December 2, which is the AWTG in Chickasha.

This Sunday we are going to start a new series in the teen class. I'm calling it "Back to the Basics." I've come to realize that I tend to neglect all these stories we grew up hearing as kids. Joshua tells the Israelites to meditate on God's word day and night. Paul also tells us in Romans 15:4 that the scriptures are written for out encouragement and in 1 Timothy 4:13 that we need to devote ourselves to the public reading of God's word. These are all references to the Old Testament, but I've let so many of these stories and lessons become forgotten. So it is my goal to re-familiarize the youth group with the lessons of the Old Testament.

SEARCHING FOR SPIRITUALITY

Great thinkers of the ages, as well as the most common of humankind, have struggled at times with the meaning and purpose of life. Solomon found emptiness and despair in his tremendous material accomplishments, then concluded to "Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man." Tolstoy concluded, "Faith in God is the strength of life: He also said, :Live seeking God, and then you will not live without God."

Spiritual renewal begins with a focus on purpose, and acceptance of God as the Father and Creator of all things. The next step in spiritual renewal involves reflection of the inner thoughts deep within us. We need to analyze the beliefs, ethics desires, ideals, morals, and values that motivate us After establishing God as our purpose, and identifying the gaps between our worldly desires and his spiritual will, we need to,

Align our thoughts with God's will.
