FAMILY NEWS

It's hard to believe but December is almost here. We just finished celebrating Thanksgiving and for a little while we can enjoy the calm before the storm. Yes, the Christmas shopping time has come. Let's remember to continue in prayer for all those struggling in life. The holiday's can be a stressful, difficult time for families dealing with loss or financial problems among other challenges. Let's make sure to keep a look out for each other and pray for those we know are struggling at this time. We have our end of the month singing devotional this coming Sunday night, the 25th. Make sure to encourage your brothers and sisters that don't normally come on Sunday evenings to come and join in on this special time of worship.

Sovereign God

We have talked all year about getting to know God better. We talked about God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We have a few more lessons to talk about God and some of His qualities. This Sunday we will talk about God being sovereign. It's difficult for us to understand what complete sovereignty is in our culture today. Nebuchadnezzar learned about God's sovereign power the hard way. For a time he became like an animal eating grass. After the time was up that God had determined, the Kings mind was restored to him and he said;

"At the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity was restored. Then I praised the Most High; I honored and glorified him who lives forever.

His dominion is an eternal dominion; his kingdom endures from generation to generation. All the peoples of the earth are regarded as nothing. He does as he pleases with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth. No one can hold back his hand or say to him:

"What have you done?" Dan 4:34-35 NIV

Let's join together this Sunday to praise and worship our sovereign God and come to a greater understanding of the significance of God's sovereignty.

See you soon.
Your brother
Jimmy Hyde

YOUTH NEWS

By NATHAN KELLY

I hope everyone has a wonderful and satisfying Thanksgiving. Don't forget that December 2 is the AWTG in Chickasha with the "Festival of Lights" to follow; the van will be leaving around 3:30. My guess is that we will be back around 9:30, but that's just a guess.

Jimmy shared a great story about a man who woke up from a 19 year coma to a world full of technology and unsatisfied people. In today's world, it's hard not to get caught up with "likes," "favorites," and "comments." It can be addicting because who doesn't like being appreciated. It's almost like a game. You have a score you want to beat with your next post, and the game goes on. You don't only get addicted to the views your post gets, but also the followers you might receive from your post. We like to feel liked, but we have to be careful. I saw a picture this week that warned of this. The picture reminded us that Jesus only had His 12 apostles where Hitler had millions of followers. Romans 1:10 reminds us to be slaves to Christ and not to the approval of our peers. We need to be careful we aren't just seeking approval and love in this technological age we live in.
