FAMILY NEWS

Our God is so good. We are richly blessed here in our church family. We have some great news, Johnathan and Ashley Radell placed their membership here with us. They are now apart of our church family. Make sure you greet them and make them feel welcome. We have some important events coming up. We have Cocoa and Carols this Friday the 14th at the Whittington home beginning at 6:30. I also want to encourage you to put on your calendar our annual Praise Him area-wide worship. All the area congregations will meet together for worship and fellowship on January 6th at the Expo center here in Shawnee beginning at 5 pm. Phil Brookman, the preaching minister from the Memorial Road congregation in Edmond will share a message titled; "I Have Decided" Don't miss out on this great opportunity to worship together with hundreds of brothers and sisters in Christ. As always remember all those on our prayer list. We have several struggling with their health; spiritually and physically. May God bless us as we unite together in His name.

How Do You See God?

None of us have seen God but all of us have an impression of what God is like. How do you view God? What do you think He is like? Is God like a policeman waiting to catch us speeding? Is God like a butler waiting to serve us? Maybe we see God as a sweet old grandpa rocking in his chair on the front porch watching us from a distance? If these views of God are wrong, how should we see Him?

"Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love." 1 John 4:7-9 NIV

We should see God for who He is; A loving God. Let's join together this Sunday to grow in our understanding and perspective of who God is in our lives today.

See you soon.
Your brother
Jimmy Hyde

PRAYER CONCERNS

Diane Lawrance is now home after several days in the hospital after having started dialysis. Please keep Bill and Diane in your prayers.

Beverly Woodard has spent the week in the hospital after a fall and a bump on her head. She is in the Skilled Nursing unit at the Seminole Hospital. Prayers, calls and visits would be greatly welcomed.

Blake Carter is scheduled for an MRI on Wednesday, December 12th to determine if the tumors are shrinking. Please remember this family as they struggle with many health issues.

Everyone in the congregation is invited to the home of Ken and Hillary Whittington on Friday, December 14th at 6:30 PM to enjoy singing Christmas Carols and Cocoa. Please see Hillary if you have any questions.

YOUTH NEWS

By NATHAN KELLY

This Sunday night is our dinner and devo at the Hyde home, and our Christmas party. Jennifer is planning a chocolate fondue, so she has asked that we bring yummy treats to dip in the chocolate. I hope you make an effort to be there, as this is the last dinner and devo of the year.

Have you ever left your house without your shoes? Unless you were just making a quick trip to the curb or your car, I can almost guess that it doesn't happen. Ephesians 6 talks about what we call the "Armor of God." Verse 15 tells us to have our feet fitted with readiness that comes from the Gospel of peace. I want to be quick and precise today. It's a busy time of the year. Every time you put your shoes on to leave your home, remember you're readying yourself also to spread the Gospel, to be kind and peaceful to all those crazy people out there, and to simply love.

"FOR THE SON OF MAN IS COME TO SEEK AND TO SAVE THAT WHICH WAS LOST."
LUKE 19:10

Please join us for the
