FAMILY NEWS

As you read this we are finishing up or have just finished our week of Bible camp at Burnt Cabin Christian camp. I want to thank all of you for your prayers and those who contributed to scholarship money for kids to go to camp. I'll give a brief report this coming Sunday on how our week went. Please continue to pray for our campers that God will cause the seeds sown to grow in their lives. I also want to thank our Shepherds Steve Kelly and Dennis Brodersen for preaching in my absence. It's not over yet; We now turn our full attention to our VBS which will begin next week on Sunday, the 23rd. Please be in prayer for our Vacation Bible School that God will send us many children and that it will be a great blessing to our church family as well as all the kids that come. God bless our efforts to accomplish His work.

Our Perfect Heavenly Father

This Sunday is Father's Day; a special day where we, as a nation, honor all our fathers. Being a father is a great honor that comes with a tremendous responsibility. To guide, guard, and protect our families is our number one goal as fathers. It can be tough sometimes to know what to do and what to say as a father. Praise God that we have a heavenly Father we can look to for an example of how to be the perfect father. Jesus taught us how to pray to our heavenly Father.

"This, then, is how you should pray:

"Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one." Matt 6:9-13 NIV

In this example prayer we can see who our heavenly Father is and what He's done for us. We can see an example of how to be a great father to our children.

See you this Sunday as we honor fathers on earth and look to our heavenly Father as an example of what we should be.

See you soon.

Your brother
